BOHEMIA TREASURY – ownership change letter

Dear business friends,

We would kindly like to inform you that with today's effect the ownership of BOHEMIA TREASURY company has been changed. The company has been transferred to Mr. Pavel Satoransky the owner of Crystal Glamour company, known famous glass factory blowing high quality lead crystal products located in Okrouhlice.

Bohemia Treasury activities will remain unchanged and furthermore will mine from the connection with this strategic, stable and well situated company. The offices and warehouse has been moved to the new address CRYSTAL GLAMOUR, a.s., 582 31 Okrouhlice 215 in Czech Republic where we would kindly like to invite you to see us and meet the new owner personally. In this new place you may find a lot of other especially handmade and decorated products. Please kindly visit the website www.crystalglamour.eu where you may see some company profile and product portfolio.

Mr. Jiri Ruzicka is leaving the company and his agenda will be taken over by Ms. Jessica Batbajerova Jessica.batbajerova@bohemiatreasury.cz

I stay in the company and will be in charge of business and product development activities.

All the open contracts will be handled normally in the same way as so far and there will be no change in our future cooperation.

By joining these 2 companies we will give to the company new energy and will provide the same large product portfolio either plain pressed articles or wide range of different high quality decoration techniques as well. We will also bring one new collection for Spring 2021.

Let me kindly thank you for the attention to this letter and I would like to express my deep expectations and enthusiasm from our future cooperation.

With best regards

Tomas Firt
