BOHEMIA TREASURY – SEPTEMBER NOVELTIES LETTER

Dear business partners,

let us to address you right at the beginning of Autumn sales season when most of you returned back from holiday and we believe you enjoyed it very much of course.

In this period of holiday time our company pushed ahead the innovation which were created based on your professional comments and demands. That is why we add them with pleasure into our assortment and we believe this is the right time for their introduction.

Besides other new designs we are proud especially at the new golden decoration called FOUR ELEMENTS – Earth, Water, Fire and Air. This registered collection has been very positively commented and welcome by our partners.

Except of our new website which has been introduced to you already we have also launched new catalogue where we included all the new designs. You may download this new catalogue in our website www.bohemiatreasury.cz in section downloads.

We hope that these new decorations will be of your taste and interest.

We also strongly believe that this our holiday time activity will meet your market needs.

Thank you very much for your support and wish you a lot of success in personal and professional life.

Sincerely

Tomas Firt
